

John Dickerson Biography

John Dickerson is the Vice President of Copiah-Lincoln Community College's Simpson County Center, which has an enrollment of over 600 students and employs over 40 full-time/part-time faculty and staff. Prior to his position at Co-Lin, he worked in admissions, orientation, scholarship, student recruitment, and student affairs for Mississippi College and Mississippi State University respectively.

John holds an A.A. degree from Hinds Community College, a B.S.B.A from Mississippi College, an M.S. in Education, and a Ph.D. in Community College Leadership from Mississippi State University.

In addition to serving on the Board of the Simpson County Economic Development foundation, he also serves on the Simpson County Mississippi Scholars' Committee as well as the Board of the Central Mississippi Chapter of Mississippi State University's Alumni Association, currently as Scholarship Chair.

John teaches a young adult Sunday school class at First Baptist Church of Florence. He is also active in youth sports coaching Upward basketball and youth baseball. John is married to Christy Dickerson. They have a son, Tyler, 10, and a daughter, Kate, 7.

